LAURENCE CHOTARD

Rue des Artistes, Paris

French graphic artist and children's book author Benedicte Guettier is known in Paris for her playful depictions of children (The Father Who Had 10 Children). Benedicte has provided original illustrations to Laurence Chotard from Rue des Artistes for a new line of accessories for kids.

These "witty" (canaille in French) and "quiet" (tranquille) little guys, serve as whimsical thematic elements running through a line that includes everything from bibs to bowls to bags - all in brilliant color.

Distributed in the US by Illico Design.
